Department of Sociology organized a field visit to Yallapur Kotemane of 'Siddi' Community

Date: February 7, 2024

The purpose of the visit was to conduct a comprehensive study on the Siddi community, focusing on socio-economic, political, religious, cultural, educational, and geographical aspects.

23 B.A students of our institution actively participated in the study.

The study took place in Yallapur Kotemane, a significant settlement for the Siddi community, providing valuable insights into their way of life. Students observed and analyzed the Siddi community's socio-economic conditions, including their occupations, income sources, and overall standard of living. Interactions with community members facilitated a deeper understanding. Insights on the political structure within the Siddi community was gained through discussions and interviews, shedding light on their participation in local governance and political dynamics. Students explored the religious practices of the Siddi community, understanding the significance of rituals, ceremonies, and the role of spirituality in their daily lives. The rich cultural heritage of the Siddi community was observed through traditional music, dance, and art forms. Students communicated with community members to appreciate the cultural diversity. A detailed analysis of the educational landscape among Siddi community members was conducted, focusing on literacy rates, access to education, and challenges faced in pursuing academic endeavors. The geographical context of Yallapur Kotemane was examined to understand how the surroundings influenced the Siddi community's way of life, including factors such as climate, terrain, and resource availability.

The visit to Yallapur Kotemane provided our students with a holistic understanding of the Siddi community, encompassing various dimensions of their lives. This hands-on experience not only enriched their academic knowledge but also fostered cultural sensitivity and awareness. After the visit All 23 students have done the project on various aspects of the life style of Siddi community.

A Special Talk of National Integration Week Role of Women in Nation Building, Environment & Society

On the occasion of 'National Integration Day, NSS cell had organised a special talk on the topic " Role of Women in Nation Building, Environment and Society" on 24th November 2023. Dr. Supriya Malshetty was the resource person. She spoke on 'Role of Women in Nation Building, that National Integration Day is celebrated every year. Indira Gandhi during her term in parliament, pushed hard for national integration in India and sought to further the country's diversity and togetherness. Further she opined that national building is included in inclusive growth such as political, economical, social development is concerned and removal of gender discrimination and upliftment of female education for the nation building. On this occasion the other resource person Dr. Yallappa Honnappanavar spoke about, "Environment and Society", he said that every healthy society is depending upon the healthy environment. Further he added every student has to plan out to plant one tree when taking admission in our college. This creates the greenery of the whole campus. Dr. Cecilia D Cruz, principal of SJMVS Arts and Commerce College for Women Hubballi gave her opinion that, all students have to maintain cleanliness of the surroundings such as campus and our home. And told the students that they are all assets to the nation and they have major role in national building particularly, women. Dr. Shivaleela Vajjinath, Dr. Tayanna, NSS Programme officers H & Prof Vidya Dumbal, Prof Shivakumar Bannihatti, IQAC Coordinator Prof Shivakumar Prabhayyanavarmath & teaching and nonteaching staff along with 200 students were present.
